TRANSACTIONS OF THE ARCHITECTURAL INSTITUTE OF JAPAN

Nov. 1972  Number 201

CONTENTS

(1) The Mechanism of the Reduction of Bending Strength of Wooden Beam Having a Notch on the Tension Side
   by Hideo Sugiyama, Member of A.I.J. ..............................................( 1 )

(2) Kinematic Analysis of Concrete Members under Combined Stresses.
   (Part 2-1) A Stochastical Study on the Shear Strength of the Reinforced Concrete Members under Combined Stresses, —Bending Moment, Shearing Force and Axial Force.— Case of Bending Moment and Shearing Force.
   by Dr. Yasuyoshi Suenaga and Rintaro Ishimaru, Members of A.I.J. ......(11)

(3) Studies on the Stiffness and the Strength of Reinforced Concrete T-Beams Subjected to Earthquake Force
   by Masamichi Ohkubo, Member of A.I.J. ............................................( 25)

(4) Theory of the Frame with Elastic Joint (4)
   —Analysis of the Frame with Elastic Joints according to the Four Moment Method—
   by Hokato Egami, Member of A.I.J. .........................................................( 33)

(5) Theory of Nonlinear Vibration of Thin Circular Cylindrical Shell—Caused by Ovalization of Cylinder Section—
   by Dr. Koichi Shibata, Member of A.I.J. .............................................( 41)

(6) On the Strength and Stiffness of Beam-to-Column Connections in Steel Tubular Columns (Part III)
   —The Shearing Strength in Steel Tubular Connections Filled with Concrete—by Dr. Takekazu Taguchi, Dr. Yasuyoshi Suenaga and Akira Sasagawa, Members of A.I.J. .........................................................(51)

(7) Studies on Man-Space System • Part 5, Behavioral Approaches
   by Hiroshi Watanabe, Yoshiro Ikehara and Others, Members of A.I.J. ....( 59)

(8) Study on the Traffic and Transportation in Hospital. (Part I)
   by Sadakichi Shin, Member of A.I.J. .....................................................( 67)

   by Tamotu. Iwatate, Member of A.I.J. ...................................................(73)

(10) On the Main Shrine of Iwashimizu-Hachiman Shrine
    by Mitsuyoshi Tsuchida, Member of A.I.J. ...........................................( 83)
