JOURNAL OF AUSTRALIAN STUDIES

March. 2013

VOL. 26

CONTENTS

[Special issue]
Post-3.11 Australia-Japan Co-operation: Facing non-traditional security challenges
Keynote Address for the Australian Studies Association of Japan Conference
.......................................................................................................................... Anne Collett (1)

[Symposium] Achievements and Issues surrounding the Japan-Australia Strategic Partnership:
Assessment after 5 Years and Prospects for the Future ———Toshiya Hoshino (11)
Prospects for Australia-Japan Cooperation in the Area of Non-Traditional Security
.......................................................................................................................... Haruko Satoh (20)

[Articles]
Politeness and “White Men” in New Guinea Pidgin ———Toru Okamura (24)
The diversity of urban society in the Sydney and Melbourne metropolitan areas
— Expanding the possibilities for analysis of Geographic Information System (GIS) —
.......................................................................................................................... Jun Tsutsumi (37)
Making a ‘home’ in Australian suburbia:
Case studies of Japanese female marriage migrants living in Western Sydney
.......................................................................................................................... Takeshi Hamano (49)
The Roles of Japanese Working Holiday Makers in Queensland’s Tourism Industry:
A Case Study of a Tourist Facility in the Cairns Region ———Nobuaki Fujioka (68)
Australian Grotesque Today: Reading Contemporary Australian Novels ———Keiji Minato (85)

[Research Notes]
‘Discovery’ of Cairns and its Socio-historical Origins:
A Methodological Perspectives on the Analysis of Far North Queensland ———Kazuhito Onozuka (99)

[Book review]
Hiroshi Tsuda, Remembering the Empire at War:
Colonial Nationalism and Commemoration of the World Wars in Australia and Canada
.......................................................................................................................... Sayoko lizasa (113)
David Black and Sachiko Sone (eds), Hiroyuki Ariyoshi and Sachiko Sone (head translators),
An Enduring Friendship: Western Australia and Japan - Past, Present and Future
.......................................................................................................................... Mayumi Kamada (116)
Mayumi Kamada (ed.),
Reframing National Memory: Stories from Australia and Japan about the Pacific War
.......................................................................................................................... Yuichi Murakami (120)

Australian Studies Association of Japan