Transformation of Australian Studies in a Globalising Age

A Collection of Essays Focusing on
Transformation of Australian Studies in a Globalising Age
[2014 ASAJ International Conference/Sophia Symposium in Commemoration of the 25th of the Foundation of the ASAJ]
26-27 July 2014

Contents:
Opening Remarks
ASAJ President ................................................................. Teruhiko Fukushima 109
The Charge d’Affaires of the Australian Embassy Tokyo .................. Tom Connor 111
Overview of “Transformation of Australian Studies in a Globalising Age”
................................................................................. Yasue Arimitsu 115

Plenary Speech 1
Historical Verticality vs Transversality ....................................... Susan Ballyn 117

Plenary Speech 2
The space of nations is never simply their own:
Hiroshima in Australian Literature ........................................ Brigitta Olubas 127

Plenary Speech 3
The Colombo Plan: Modernization, Memory and Cultural Engagement in Australia and New Zealand .................................................. David Lowe 142

Sophia Symposium--Panel: A New Wave of Media in a Multicultural Society... Yuga Suzuki 154
Recognising Aboriginal Publics: European Australians Listening Instead of Talking ................................................................. Catriona Elder 156

Belonging on the Edge of Australia:
Narratives of Media, Representation and Surf Culture .................. Baden Offord 161
Dissemination of Emergency Information in Multi-Cultural Society... Takanobu Tanaka 173

Comments on the Sophia Symposium ........................................ Kate Darian-Smith 187

Summary of Round-table Discussion:
The Future of Australian Studies in a Globalising Age .................. David Walker 190

Articles:
A “Representative Collection”: The History of Ukiyo-e at the National Gallery of Victoria (1909-2005) .......................... Gary Hickey 194
Contemporary Australian Indigenous Women’s Life Writing .......... Hongbo Du 211
(Re)imagining Marriage: Japanese Women with non-Japanese husbands in Australia ................................................................. Mayuko Itoh 221
Australian Literature in China .................................................. Yao Li 235 and “Another Happy Day in Hobart” (1998) ....................... Catalina Rebas Segura 240
Journey: from Frank Clune’s Exotic Orient to Menacing Asia .................. David Walker 248