ATEM BULLETIN

TEACHING ENGLISH THROUGH MOVIES

NUMBER 6

2001

CONTENTS

Articles:

3  A Choice of Movies for EFL Lessons at College: From a Viewpoint of Basal Words in Textbooks for Senior High School
   Reito ADACHI
   Shoichi HASEGAWA

19  The Interdependency of Context, Comfort, Critical Thinking, and Discourse: Using Videos in the EFL Classroom
    Tomoyuki KOIKE
    Dawn PAULLIN
    Mary SANDKAMP

33  An Attempt at Using DVD in EFL Classes: How can we make it work?
    Shoji SHIMABAYASHI

45  Future prospects of English Teaching through DVD technology
    Fumihiro TAKASE

53  Titanic-Steaming in Class: Exploring ‘comprehensible input’
    Fuki NAKAI

67  The Use of Film for Learning a Concept unique to Another Culture: The Case of Understanding the Concept of ‘American Dream’
    Chieko HAYASHI

From the sixth convention of ATEM  Research Report

88  Possibility of some applications of DVD to language teaching
    Soichiro OKU

94  Using MDs and DVDs with JHS Textbooks
    Hirofumi TSUKAGOSHI

99  English Through Movies - A native speaker's view point -
    L. Dennis WOOLBRIGHT

103 Making good use of a movie from the aspects of listening, writing, thinking
    Junji YOSHIURA

ATEM

The Association for Teaching English through Movies