GEOGRAPHICAL SCIENCES

Chiri-Kagaku

Vol. 66 No. 3 2011

CONTENTS

Symposium:  Sustainability: a current issue in geographical education
  WADA F., MAEDA S. and YUASA S.:
  General Consideration ...................................................... 93

—— Articles ——
  URABE M.:  Teaching Principles and Curriculum Development on the Education for Sustainable Development ........................ 96
  WADA F.:   The Possibilities of Geographical Education as ESD:
               By Means of International Implementation Scheme .......... 101
  KAWADA T.: The Contribution of Geography to Sustainable Society ..... 106
  HAMANO K.: Adoption of ESD in the New Courses of Study ............ 116
  TABE T.:   The Research of ESD Lesson in Elementary Education .... 124
  IKESHITA M.: Practical Geographic Lessons on ESD in the Field of Junior High School Social Studies:
               Through the Process of Critical Thinking ....................... 133
  NAKAMURA M.: Practical Report of ESD in Geography Lesson:
                Check Sheet Approach and Reorienting Perspectives
                Approach .......................................................... 141

—— General Overview ——
  NAKAYAMA S.: Comments ..................................................... 152

Book Reviews ........................................................................ 155

Notes and News ...................................................................... 160