Central Japan English Studies

vol. 30 2010

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

Mitoko HIRABAYASHI: The Impossibility of the Mother Quest in Kazuo Ishiguro's When We Were Orphans ................................................................. 1

Naho SHIBA: The Origins of Public Parks in Nineteenth-Century Britain:
The Shift from the Botanical Garden to the Public Park as Shown in the Establishment of Derby Arboretum (1840) ......................................................... 13

Shigetoshi YAMAKAWA: A Study of Premodification of Nouns by Past Participles ...... 31

REVIEWS

Izumi WICKS: The Eighteenth Century Women Writers Study Group, ed.:
Women Writers in the Long Eighteenth Century: From Aphra Behn to Maria Edgeworth.
Tokyo: Eihosha, 2009, 225 pp. .......................................................................................... 45

Cambridge: Cambridge UP, 2009, 203 pp. ........................................................................ 51

PROCEEDINGS

1st Symposium: Bipolarization in the Process of Globalization: Race, Gender, Class

Taketoshi FUROMOTO:
Bipolarization in the Process of Globalization: Race, Gender, Class ................................ 67

Kazuo IWATA: Getting Toward Hybridity or Purity? ......................................................... 73

Katsunori KAJIHARA: Globalization from the Perspective of Modernization:
Drawing an Example of W. B. Yeats .............................................................................. 77
Rie KAWAI: Contemporary Irish Poetry: the Case of Women Poets ........................................... 81

Shigeru OZAWA: Celebrate the Diversity: Seamus Heaney's National Identity ................. 86

2nd Symposium: Minor Literature in the Antebellum Era

Masahiro NAKAMURA: Creating a Prototype of the Native American Story in the 1820s:
Fictional Transfigurations of Yamoyden ........................................................................ 92

Suzuko SHINDO: The Antebellum Black Novel:
A Challenge to Literary Discourses and the Existence Proof ........................................ 95

Yumiko MORIWAKI: Theaters and Urban Working Class in the Antebellum Era Melodramas and Blackface Minstrels ....................................... 98

Yoshiko YAMAGUCHI: The Strategies of the Dime Novel:
Stephens' Malaksa and Ellis' Seth Jones ....................................................................... 101

3rd Symposium: Idiomatization and Constructionalization

Yasuaki ISHIZAKI: Idiomaticity in the Phrasal Verbs with a Directional Adverb ............. 106

Minoji AKIMOTO: Idiomatization of V + NP + P Construction .......................................... 110

Yusuke KUME: The Historical Development of Double Verb Constructions:
The Case of Grammaticalization of COME/GO Verbs .................................................... 117

Mitsuru MAEDA: From Interrogation to Emotional Expression:
The Case of Constructionalization of Exclamatives ....................................................... 120

INVITED SPEECH

Akira TAMAI: The English Fin-de-Siècle Literature and Its Sense of Literary Language ......................................................................................................................... 125

The English Literary Society of Japan, Chūbu