The Journal of the American Literature Society of Japan
Number 4 (2005)
(SAL Cumulative Number 42)

The Journal of the American Literature Society of Japan (JALSJ) is devoted to the study of American literature. Since its foundation in 1956, the American Literature Society of Japan has been publishing annually Studies in American Literature, a bilingual scholarly journal. In March, 2002, the Society launched JALSJ, a journal of papers in English to address a wider audience. Studies in American Literature (SAL) continues as a Japanese language periodical.

Editors
BABA Hirotophi, Fukuoka Women's University
FUJIHIRA Ikuko, Chuo University
HARA Shigeyoshi, Dokkyo University
HAYASHI Ichiro, Doshisha University
IMAMURA Tateo, Tokyo Woman's Christian University
ITO Akira, Hokkaido University
KATO Yoshihumi, Ehime University
David MAYER, Nanzan University
MIYAKAWA Tadashi, Hosei University
MIZUNO Naoyuki, Kyoto University
Susan PAVLOSKA, Doshisha University
SAITO HIrotsugu, Iwate University
SHIBATA Motoyuki, University of Tokyo
TAKEDA Yuichi, Nanzan University
TATSUMI Takayuki, Keio University
UCHINO Tadashi, University of Tokyo
UENISHI Tetsuo, Hokuseigakuen University
WATANABE Shinji, Rikkyo University

Editor-in-Chief
ORISHIMA Masashi, Aoyama Gakuin University

Managing Editors
NITTA Keiko
TANABE Chikage
SASAKI Mari

The American Literature Society of Japan
HIRAISHI Takaki, President

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
c/o Department of English, Kwansei Gakuin University
1-155 Uegahara Ichibancho, Nishinomiya, Hyogo 662-8501 JAPAN

EDITORIAL OFFICE
c/o Department of English, Gakushuin University
1-5-1 Mejiro, Toshima-ku, Tokyo 171-8588 JAPAN

ARCHIVE
c/o Department of English, Kinjo Gakuin University
2-1723 Omori, Moriyama, Nagoya, Aichi 463-8521 JAPAN

Institutions, please write to our editorial office for complementary copies of the journal. Printed by Center for Academic Publications Japan.

©2006 The American Literature Society of Japan