NIHON IGAKU TETSUGAKU RINRI GAKKAI
Annals of the Japanese Association for Philosophical and Ethical Researches in Medicine

Contents

Articles
1. On the Due Process of Discussion in Bioethics
   — Especially in the Sex Selection in Reproduction —
   Kyoichi OZAKI .................. (1)

2. The Philosophical Implications of the Case for against Animal Research
   Toshio MATSUWA .................. (2)

3. On the Problematic Application of Kant's Concept of Person to Medical Ethics
   Kenji HATTORI .................. (3)

4. Medicine and Power
   Takeshi MAGOME .................. (5)

5. The Discussion of "Brain Death and Organ Transplantation" and Conditions of "Social Consensus"
   Kiyoshi MURAOKA ................. (5)

6. Justification of Paternalism
   Mitsuo TANIMOTO ................. (7)

Special Lecture
7. What is the 'Philosophizing Doctors'?
   Kenzaburo TSUCHIYA .......... (8)

Proposal
   Hiroshi YAMASHITA .............. (9)

Invited Report
9. Attempts to Link Medicine to Philosophy, Ethics, and Law
   Shinryo N. SHINAGAWA .......... (10)

Symposium (on the Philosophy in Medical Education)
10. — Why Should Philosophy be necessary in Medical Education? —
    Masakatsu OKADA ............... (11)

11. — The Position of Philosophy in Medical Education —
    Tensei OKAMOTO ................. (12)

12. — The Image of Ideal Physician —
    Masami HIRAYAMA ............... (14)

13. — From the Viewpoint of a Jurist —
    Takeshi HIRANO ................. (15)