Retraction: The Application of ISMD in Development of White ECC

The Editorial Board of the Journal of Asian Architecture and Building Engineering has confirmed that the paper written by Jia Huan Yu et al, published in vol. 9, no. 2 issue in 2010 contains improper authorship without the consent of the co-author, serious plagiarism, and copyright violation from the original research conducted by Victor C. Li et al, Development of ECC for Building Product Applications (First progress report in March 2008). Therefore, the Editorial Board has decided to retract the offending paper from the Journal.
