Contents

Foreword
Koichi BAI : Proxy Consent is not a shorter Way 3

Articles of Invitation
Gen OHI : Enviromental problems and ethical sense — global warming and two types of environmental ethics — 5
Shigeru MUSHIKA : Ethical issues of biomedical enhancement 12
Susumu SHIMAZONO : Enhancement and the values of life: in the case of mood manipulation 19
Kozi MUTO, Keiko SATOH, Yasuko SHIRAI : Seven suggestions for reforming research ethics review committees 28

Susumu TOKUNAGA : Important 13 old Japanese words for bioethics 35

Mihoko MIYAWAKI : The responsibility of the professional nurse in the health care 41
Takao TAKAHASHI : Bioethics and environmental ethics — a synthesis through the concept of care — 46
Hiromi UCHIDA : The responsibility of a nurse for the health care risk management 51

Articles
Chitose YOSHIZAWA, Takako SHIRATORI : History of Hansen's disease and problems on nursing education in Japan: nursing ethical roles and bioethics 59
Koichi JIMBA : Correlation of "Right to life" with "Human dignity" in the field of human embryo research 67
Milo MATSUI : The effectiveness of an educational program using group discussion for understanding terminal care 75
Chieko KURHARA : Mixture of public-private health insurance system and experimental medicine: its bioethical solution 84
Tomohiko YAMA : The HIV/AIDS politics and the principle of precaution 93

Reports
Noriko NAGAO, Yoshiyuki TAKIMOTO, Akira AKABAYASHI : A survey on the current state of hospital ethics consultation in Japan 101
Tomoko YOKOYAMA, Masahito HITOSUGI, Tadaaki SASAKI, Toshiaki NAGAI, Yutaka IMAI, Shogo TUKUDOME : Management of immature patients whose mothers are Jehovah's Witnesses 107
Hisako NAKAO, Tomie NAGAKAWA, Takae FUJIMOTO, Masae TSUTSUMI, Hitoshi NAKAMURA, Hidekazu MORITA, Masayuki OBAHAYASHI, Toshihiko KOBAYASHI : Expertise and professional career of midwives in relation to awareness of ethical issues 112
Kazuko KIKUI, Mieko YAMAGUCHI, Michiyori WATANABE, Yoko SHIRAIWA : Current state and prospect of spiritual care by Shingonshu buddhist priests in terminal care — 120
Yasuaki HORII : Is education concerning a view of life and death possible? — the meaning of bioethics education in nursing curriculum — 127

Introduction
Yuuichi SATOH : Withdrawal of medical treatment from a PVS patient and political intervention 135
Masao SHIBUYAMA : Isn't it really important to be human? — to rehabilitate anthropocentrism 144

Research Notes
Yasuhiro TANIGUCHI, Yukioyoshi TSUKATA : Study of asymmetric buffering of information in health care 151
Mari HONDA : Medically assisted procreation post-mortem — legal comparison between in France and in Japan 159
Miho CHINONE : Awareness and globalization of bioethics in Costa Rica with regards to "The start of human life" 168
Kumiko HAMAMACHI : Decision making and consensus building in medicine 176
Takako KATO : The moral status of the fetus in the use of fetal tissue: from the arguments in England 185
Mitsuko TAMURA : Relational self-determination — to be a decisional subject who are living in relationship on a clinical field — 194
Yasunobu NOZAKI : Beyond the confrontation between SOL and QOL — Costs for living 202
Kenji MATSUI, Yoshikuni KITA : Ethical issues on a current tendency in genetic cohort study to withhold individual genetic analysis results from the sample donors 210

Program of the 16th Annual Meeting 219