ANNALS of the Japan Association of Economic Geographers

Vol.51 No.4 2005

Special Issue: On the innovativeness of industrial agglomerations

Reports
Difficulty and Possibility of Industrial Agglomerations in Tokyo Metropolitan Area and a Decline of Domestic Industrial Agglomerations: Using Comparative Analysis from the Viewpoint of Changes in Economic Environment and Changes in Agglomeration Structure
KATO Hideo...... 1(295)
The Industrial Agglomeration in Higashi-Osaka, Aspect of the Distribution Channels
OHSAWA Katsufumi...... 18(312)
Implications of SMEs’s Networks Proposing Collective Learning in Agglomeration Areas of Non-metropolitan Region: Case Studies on Yonezawa City in Yamagata prefecture, Kitakami City and Hanamaki City in Iwate prefecture
MATSUHASHI Koji...... 35(329)
Some Characteristics of Innovations in Traditional Industrial Regions: A Comparative Studies of the Pottery Industries in Mashiko and Kasama
HATSUZAWA Toshio...... 54(348)
Competitive Advantage and Innovation of Digital Content Industrial Clusters in Japan in Global Competition Era: A Case of “SD GUNDAMFORCE” Project
HARA Shinji...... 74(368)

Article
A Study on location of bookstore chains from the relations with wholesalers
HATA Yoji...... 93(387)

Proceedings and Discussions at the 52st Annual Meetings
Symposium “On the innovativeness of industrial agglomerations”
HATA Yoji...... 112(406)
Round Table Discussion “Industrialization of agriculture and restructuring of the spatial structure in Japan”
Round Table Discussion “Explanation for the 20th century system of the Japanese economy”
Round Table Discussion “The relationship between economic geography and geographical education”
Frontier Session
Excursion “Industrial agglomeration of the greater Tama area”

Proceedings of the Local Meetings
THE JAPAN ASSOCIATION OF ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHERS
% TOKYO GAKUGEI UNIVERSITY, TOKYO, JAPAN

定価 本体2,500円（税別） 発売・日本経済評論社