THE TOURISM STUDIES
Vol.22 No.2

SPECIAL ISSUE:
02 MICE is Another Important Subject of Tourism Research
SOSHIRODA, Akira

04 Position & Problems of MICE on Tourism Studies & Tourism Policy in Japan
WATANABE, Asumi

08 Present Situation and Issues of MICE Policy
IWAMOTO, Koichi

14 MICE Promotion Strategy for Local City
— Implication from the Practice of Shizuoka Prefecture —
IWASAKI, Kunihiko

18 Kobe’s MICE Strategy
HAYASHI, Yoshihiro

24 The MICE Development and Strategy in Singapore
TERASAWA, Yoshichika

REFERENCES

33 Driving Factors behind the Diversification Phenomenon to Composite-Shop with Museum Function in the Formation Process of Tourist Area:
In Case of Traditional House Renovations in the Slope Land of ONOMICHI
YOSHIKAWA, Hiroshi

43 Discussion on Output of Regional appeal Using Homegrown wither
Viewed from Narrative approach
—A case study of Nagato City—
YAMAZAKI, Takayuki, SOSHIRODA, Akira

51 Formation and Tourism Development of “The Three Big Festivals in Tohoku”
ANAMI, Toru

61 Reproduction of the Image-Tourists Practicing the “Aloha Spirit”
SHINDO, Sachiyo

71 Externalities of Tourism and Adaptability of Management Theories
FUJIMAMI, Miho

SYMPOSIUM

79 New Business in Tourism

103 Branch Report of Area Activity