Contents

Special articles: Forefront of Evidence-Based Behavioral Support for Persons With Developmental Disabilities

Editorial
◆ Noriko Hirasawa: Forefront of Evidence-Based Behavioral Support for Persons With Developmental Disabilities ..............................................................................................................2

Article
◆ Noriko Hirasawa: Contributions of Applied Behavior Analysis to Support Practices for Persons With Developmental Disabilities and Behavior Problems: Toward Evidence-Based Protection of Their Rights ..................................................................................................33
◆ Jun-ichi Yamamoto and Naoki Shibuya: Evidence-Based Supports for Persons with Developmental Disabilities: Contribution of Applied Behavior Analysis .............................................................................46
◆ Akira Ootsuka: Toward Evidence-Based Support for Persons With Developmental Disabilities ..................................................................................................................................................71
◆ Yushiro Yamashita, Akiko Mukasa, Toyojiro Matsuishi, and William E. Pelham: Summer Treatment Programs for Japanese Children With ADHD: 3-Year Experience ..............................................................................75

Comments
◆ Toshio Asano: Necessary Supports for the Improvement of the Social Life of Persons With Disabilities in the Community ........................................................................................................82
◆ Satoru Shimamune: Comments on the Special Volume, Evidence-Based Behavioral Support for Persons with Developmental Disabilities ................................................................................................85