CONTENTS

Foreword ........................................................................................................................................... 179

Original Paper

Factors Influencing QOL in Patients with Brain Tumors Measured by Mood State after the Treatment: On Differences in Gender, Age, and Treatment Modality ........................................... 181
Family-work for Eating Disorders: Relations to Family Distress and Family Function .................. 188

Case Report

Treatment of Psychosomatic Disease in Oto-rhinolaryngology (Vertigo/Dizziness) by Brief Therapy: Introduction of a Solution-Focused Approach ............................................................ 199