CONTENTS

Foreword ...........................................................................................................Shiro Totsuka…709

Symposium/The Role of Psychosomatic Medicine for Pre-and Post-graduate Education of Comprehensive Medicine
Pre-graduate Medical Education in Toho University:
A Trial of Small Group Learning ...............................................................Masahiro Hashizume, et al…711
Advance to Comprehensive Medicinal Education from Psychosomatic Medicinal Education:
What Citizens Want ....................................................................................Katsutaro Nagata, et al…719
Education for Whole-person Medicine:
How Does Psychosomatic Medicine Contribute to It? ..........................Seiji Saito, et al…727
Medical Interview Training with Simulated Patients Playing “Difficult Patients”:
An Approach to Holistic Medical Care Education for Undergraduate Medical Students
.............................................................................................................Junji Nishiyama, et al…737
Education for the Bio-psycho-social Medicine in the PBL-tutorial Program
.............................................................................................................Mikihiko Fukunaga, et al…745

Reference Paper
Education of Medical Psychology in Germany ..........................................Chiaki Ihara…753