International Oral Session

May 14 (Mon.)  Room B2

13:10 – 14:30  International Oral Session 1

Chair: Minoru Irahara (Japan)

1. The Importance of Mother’s Companion during Second Stage Delivery Process
   Ova Emilia (Indonesia)

2. Reduction of Maternal Depression and Anxiety after Preterm Labour
   Vilava Gibevcnik Velikonja (Slovenia)

3. Applying Cognitive–Behavioral Family–Therapy Combined with Chiropractic in Treatment of Psychosomatic Disorders (Masculoskelt)
   Mohammad Khodayarifard (Iran)

   Cecilia U. Ekéus (Sweden)

5. Psychological Correlates of Prenatal Attachment among IVF Women and Controls
   Anna Hjelmstedt (Sweden)

14:30 – 16:00  International Oral Session 2

Chair: Hiroshi Kobayashi (Japan)

1. Denial of the Climacteric – A Pilot Study of a Common Clinical Phenomenon
   Vivian Pramataroff (Germany)

2. Characterizing Anxiety in the Perinatal Period: Research in Progress
   Diane C. Meschino (Canada)

3. Women’s Psychological Reactions to Ectopic Pregnancy
   Naga Veni Yuddandi (Ireland)

4. Psychological Consequences of Rape and Attempted Rape, Psychological Treatment and the Process of Healing
   Annalise Rust (Denmark)

5. Postpartal Depression: Are Prevention Strategies Successful?
   Beate Wimmer-Puchinger (Austria)

6. The Ponder Trial: A Cost–Effectiveness Trial of Psychological Intervention by Health Visitors for Postnatal Depression
   Pauline Slade (UK)

7. Women’s Views and Experiences about Delayed Childbearing: An Overview of Australian Women Accessing Assisted Reproductive Technology
   Andrea J. Hayward (Australia)
May 14 (Mon.)

15:30 - 15:50  International Oral Session 3

Chair: Kohji Miyazaki (Japan)

The Female Body of Psychoanalysis
Andreas Hamburger (Germany)

May 15 (Tue.)

14:30 - 14:40  International Oral Session 4

Chair: Masahide Ohmichi (Japan)

Compassion Fatigue: The Costs of Caring
Shari Munch (USA)