CONTENTS

Notice of the 16th Congress of Japan Health Medicine Association .......................... (Opening)

FOREWORD: .................................................................................................................. (1)

ORIGINAL ARTICLES:

Relationship between ultrasonography of knee cartilage and BMI, leg alignment and muscle strength in middle-aged and elderly women
................................................................................................................................. K. ITO, et al. ...... (3)

Fundamental Studies on Relieving the Physical Burden on Caregivers at Home
................................................................................................................................. K. KATO, et al. ...... (12)

Quick Measurement of Prolidase Activity by Enzyme Assay
................................................................................................................................. K. AKAMATSU, et al. ...... (18)

Transition of Obesity from the Twenties to the Seventies of 400,000 Japanese
—A prospective cohort study on body mass index— ................. T. KATSURA, et al. ...... (24)

SHORT REPORT:

Biological Effects of Anthocyanin Extracted from the Purple Sweet Potatoes on the Primary Culture Cell Lines Originated from the Japanese Sika Deer in vitro
................................................................................................................................. M. SHIRAI, et al. ...... (29)