Lepidoptera Science

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Lepidoptera Science is quarterly published in annual volumes by the Lepidopterological Society of Japan. Members of the Society are invited to submit for publication, original articles written in English or Japanese concerning various aspects of Lepidopterology.

In the preparation of manuscripts, contributors are requested to follow the style used in recent issues of Lepidoptera Science. Each manuscript should be accompanied by a short abstract and a running head, and prepared on A4 size pages. Text, figure legends and tables should be included in a single file (MS Word [.doc] or RTF [.rtf]). Figures in digital files (PDF[,pdf]) at submission of manuscripts should be small in size. Authors who are unable to prepare figures in digital files may send them as a hard copy. Original figures in digital files should be prepared in TIFF, EPS or BMP format, in enough quality more than 300dpi of photo images and 600dpi drawing. Original figures should not be sent until the manuscript has been accepted for publication. The length of the article will be ordinarily limited to 12 printed pages. Authors will be charged for articles comprising more than 12 printed pages (JPY5,000 per page). Authors can include two color figured pages for free. Authors will be charged JPY 10,000 per page for extra color page.

The original manuscript should be submitted to the Editor-in-Chief:

Toshiya HIROWATARI, Entomological Laboratory, Graduate School of Life and Environmental Sciences, Osaka Prefecture University, Sakai, Osaka, 599-8531, Japan (E-mail: tlsj@envi.osakafu-u.ac.jp). Acceptance for publication will be decided by the Editor-in-Chief.

One first proof will be sent to the contributor for correction. The corrected proof is to be returned immediately to the Managing Editor. Reprints may be obtained on payment. The number required should be specified when the article is submitted. Original figures will not be returned unless requested by the author.

All correspondence concerning manuscripts should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief:
