Welcome to the Special Section on Invited Papers of Media Technology and Applications

Editor-in-Chief Shin’ichi Satoh

We are very pleased to introduce this special section of the Transactions on Media Technology and Applications on Invited Papers of Media Technology and Applications. Taking this opportunity, we solicited leading researchers in various research topics to share their recent findings with us. Finally, they kindly contributed seven invited papers in diverse topics.

We are very grateful to all guest editors and the reviewers whose help is needless to say indispensable. We sincerely thank all the authors who submitted to this section for their exciting work.
