Interdisciplinary Studies of Japanese Buddhism

No. 9

2010

Lecture
Nichiren and Fūkyō-Bodhisattva ..................................IMANARI, Genshō... 1

Articles
House Decoration and Chinese Materials in the Muromachi Palace and the Zen Sect ...........................................................HARADA, Masatoshi... 13
Buddhism and School Education in the Taishō and Early Shōwa Eras; Focusing on Kizu Muan’s Lecture Tours to Normal Schools ............................................................TANIGAWA, Yutaka... 33
Reexamining the Historical Background of the Construction of the Yakushi Nyorai Statue at Jingoji ........................................SARAI, Mai... 55
Kōin of Onjōji and Kamakura Buddhism; Centering on the Relations among Hōnen, Dōgen and Kōgyō ...........................................TACHI, Ryūshi... 73
One Aspect of Understanding Shakyamuni Buddha in the Tenjiku Section of Konjaku-monogatari-shū; Focusing on Miraculous Powers ..................................................................KASHIWAGI, Yasuko...105
Zen in Shingon Esotericism; Centering on Bodaishin-ron Kaiken-shō .............................................................. TADO, Taichi...131
Comparing Hōnen’s and Shinran’s Views of Nenbutsu ...........SAITŌ, Maki...149

Book Reviews
Jacqueline I. Stone and Mariko Namba Walter eds., Death and the Afterlife in Japanese Buddhism, University of Hawai’i Press, 2008. x+382pp. ......................................................SEKIMORI, Gaynor...171

Development in International Research
“Religious Texts and Performance in East Asia” .................................................................MAKINO, Atsushi...177

Report and Regulations
List of Members’ Achievements in 2010