Guide for presentation
Oral Presentation
Total time for Special Lecture is 50 min including time for discussion. Total time for Morning Lecture is also 50 min including time for discussion. Please leave at least 5 min for questions and answers. Total time for speakers in each session will be informed from the session organizer.

A PC-projector will be settled in the room for presentation. A PC is connected with the projector through the VGA 15-pin miniature D-type connector. Your own PC is recommended to use since problems including font-mismatch and movie running trouble might occur. Therefore you are requested to bring your own notebook PC. The next presenter should keep your PC running.
Please confirm the details at the registration desk on the day before your presentation. At least, you are requested to confirm the connection of your PC with the PC-projector for your slides to be shown properly before your session.

If you can’t bring your own PC, please bring and copy your presentation file to our PC.

*Registration desk opens
17:00 to 19:00 on December 6th
8:30 to 19:00 on December 7th and 8th
8:30 to 13:00 on December 9th

Poster Presentation
The dimensions of the poster should be smaller than a panel board [1200 (W) \times 2100 (H) (in mm)]. The poster is pasted on the board using pushpins that will be provided. Neither electrical power nor a desk is provided. The poster numbers will be displayed on each of the panel boards.

It is requested to paste your poster on December 7th and remove it on December 9th.

*Obligation time
Odd Numbers: 14:00-15:00 on December 7th
Even Numbers: 14:00-15:00 on December 8th

Award
The ISSS2007 Organizing Committee will award the Young Investigator Poster Awards in recognition of young sonochemists' outstanding achievements. The winners will be chosen from the poster presenters during the symposium; all presenters under age 40 will be eligible. The Award ceremony will be held at the Banquet (Dec. 8).

Social Program
The social program will consist of a welcome party, the symposium banquet and optional tours.
