No. 48, Oct. 2004

Records Management and Archival Management in Private Companies

CONTENTS

Articles
Records management as MOT (Management of Technology) and recompilation of records in corporate museums .................................................................-Koichi MABUCHI 3
Thoughts on business archives ..................................................-Hidemasa OMURA 11
Effects of the recent legal and voluntary regulations on documents management: The cases of pharmaceutical companies ......................-Akira KUROZUMI 29

Lecture
Archives of famous business leaders in Japan: introduction of a project of the Industry Club of Japan
....................................................................................................-Tetsuro SUEYOSHI 49

Interviews with experts
What should be the roles of new records managers? ......................-Masashi KOTANI 54
My involvement in corporate archives .........................................-Haruhito TAKEDA 57
Trends of Japan’s corporate museums ...........................................-Shigeo HOSHIAI 60

Translation
Terry Cook “What is past is prologue: a history of archival ideas since 1898.
and the future paradigm shift” (Part I ) Archivaria, Vol. 43, 1997, p. 17-63 ............-Jiro TSUKADA 63

Book reviews
Tetsukazu OKAMOTO. Information Resources Management Policy in the U.S. Federal Government:
Its Characteristics and Change ....................................................-Takashi KOGA 91
J. MCLEOD; C. HARE; R. JOHARE.
“Education and training for records management in the electronic environment
—the (re) search for an appropriate model” Information Research, 9(3) paper 179, 2004.
........................................................................................................-Takahiro SAKAGUCHI 96

Introduction of books/documents
Makiko MIWA. Information Retrieval Skill .....................................-Kazuaki KISHIDA 100
William SAFFADY. Records Information Management:
A Benchmarking Study of Large U.S. Industrial Companies, ARMA International 2002
........................................................................................................-Masashi KOTANI 101