

Plankton and Benthos Research

Announcement

Copyright

The papers of Plankton and Benthos Research are rigidly protected by copyright. In the case of scientific citation of figures, tables, etc. from papers appearing in either the present journal or its predecessors, please contact the current Editor-in-Chief of The Plankton Society of Japan or The Japanese Association of Benthology, according to the society to which the copyright of that paper belongs. The society holding the copyright is presented at the top right of the title page of each paper.

Predecessor

Plankton Biology and Ecology, published by The Plankton Society of Japan, is a predecessor (1997-2005) of this journal but is not listed as such on the menu to the left, because it is not registered and distributed at J-Stage but rather at the Society website (<http://www.plankton.jp/PBE/>), from which all papers published in Plankton Biology and Ecology are freely available in pdf format.
